There will be a grand Democratic rousement to-night in honor of the magnificent Democratic victory.

The crowd will assemble back of James' Bank Block at 8 o'clock, and will then proceed to the Executive Mansion.

Smith's majority, 1,346; Howell's majority, 1,376; Calhoun's majority, 1,183; Hoge's majority, 837.

Election Returns.

Thirty-nine counties heard from gives Smith a majority of 22,300. Only two counties heard from have gone for Walker, McIntosh and Thomas.

Correction in our Election Returns.

By some mistake, last night, our Troup and Bibb county returns got mixed.

Bibb county reports 1,800 Democratic majority and Troup county 1,000 Democratic instead of the reverse, as reported.

☞ P. F. Smith will address the citizens of Carroll at Carrollton, October 9th, and the citizens of Troup at West Point, October 12th.

Resignation of Bishop Persico.

We learn from the Savannah Morning News that the Right Reverend Bishop Persico, of the Catholic Church, has tendered his resignation to the Pope. The causes inducing this act are not stated. Bishop Persico has presided over the Diocese of Georgia and Florida for a year or more, and has, by his consistent course, genial manners and capable ministration, given general satisfaction, and his present determination to sever his connection officially will doubtless occasion much regret. It is not known definitely what disposition will be made of the resignation, though it is supposed it will be accepted. Reverend Father Wayrick, now pastor of the Church of the Holy Evangelist, New York, is spoken of as the successor of Bishop Persico.

The Indiana Campaign.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., September 29.—At Rochester Saturday there was a great gathering of Democrats and Liberals. The whole county turned out to hear Colonel Groesbeck, of Missouri.

Gratz Brown is in the city, and expresses himself as confident that Hendricks will carry this State. He will speak every day this week. He goes to Fort Wayne Monday.

Governor Hendricks returned to the city to-day, and predicts that he will carry the State by ten thousand. The State is hotly contested, and is flooded with Radical speakers and money from the East.—Special dispatch to the Courier-Journal.

☞ Here is an interesting problem for Mr. Curtis. In fact its elucidation would make an excellent lecture which he could deliver when he again goes out to enlighten the country people upon the beauties of Grant's Civil Service reform. In 1869 the number of vessels arriving at the port of Portland, Maine, was 3,422, and the Custom House force was 22 men, whose united salaries amounted to $40,500. But in 1870, and this is one of the beneficent results of Grantism, the number of vessels arriving was only 1,139, and this number has not increased since. Yet so excellent are the new rules of our Civil Service that the number of employees is now 44, and the amount of salaries is swelled to $91,322. What a howl would those 22 men must have had in 1869 to do more than double the work which 44 men are now required to perform! But perhaps they were not expected to run about the State to aid in packing conventions and carrying elections.

☞ James Gordon Bennett, the late editor of the New York Herald, left a large bequest to his wife, but only upon the condition that she remained his widow. This condition will, it is said, be set aside by the courts. It has been judicially decided over and over again that all conditions in restraint to marriage are opposed to public policy, and are simply null and void. Mrs. Bennett is much younger than her late husband, and may marry again.

Georgia News.

The capital stock of the Ice Company of Savannah is to be raised to two hundred thousand dollars.—Constitutionalist.

A joint stock company has been formed in McDuffie county for the purpose of getting up a Fair Association.—McDuffie Journal.

During September, this year, Columbus received 5,675 bales of cotton; for the corresponding month of 1871 she received 1,701, showing an increase for this year of 3,974 bales.—Columbus Enquirer.

More cotton has been saved this year from Gwinnett than was ever known before in the month of September. Judge Wilson killed two wild turkeys at one shot last week. The United States Coast Surveyors have just completed a tower fifty-one feet high upon a hill near the churches in Lawrenceville; we understand the object is to enable them to get a correct topographical map of the State. One was built in Hall county, one in Forsyth, one in Cobb, one near Norcross, and they now propose building one on Stone Mountain.—Gwinnett Herald.

Officers Caymann and Fox finished their labors at the junk shop of Dennis O'Connell yesterday, having unearthed in all about $3,000 worth of railroad iron belonging to the Central Railroad, and also some belonging to the Atlantic and Gulf Railroad. Besides the railroad iron, they are of the opinion that there are large quantities of iron on the same premises stolen from private individuals. This winds up the railroad iron case.—Savannah Advertiser.

A terrible tornado in Walker county on Sunday last. In the track of country it went through not a tree is left standing, several dwelling houses were blown down and utterly destroyed. The cotton fields that lay in the zone over which it swept are rendered worthless, and the loss occasioned by it may be estimated at thousands. The colored men of Rome have formed a fire company, and will take steps immediately to buy a hose reel.—Rome Commercial.

NO. 1.

CUMMING, GA., October 1, 1872.

Editors Constitution: A large crowd assembled in the Court House to-day to hear Gen. Garlington, but for some unexplained cause he failed to reach here.

Col. H. P. Bell, the Democratic nominee for Congress in this district, addressed the meeting in a very clear, logical and forcible manner, showing clearly the misrule of Grant and the Radical party, and the great and grand reasons why we, as Democrats and Patriots, should support Mr. Greeley. He spoiled all the tracks made by Judge Walker last Friday, and paid a glowing tribute to the honesty, integrity and patriotism of Governor Smith.

The nomination of Col. Bell meets with unanimous approval and enthusiasm. This county is a unit for him. On Saturday night after he returned from Gainesville a large crowd of young people of both sexes, including the High School, serenaded him at his house. He addressed them for fifteen or twenty minutes in a most felicitous manner, belonging to but few men except himself.

Col. Bell speaks to the freedmen to-night in the Court House.

All right for Smith, honesty and The Constitution. OBSERVER.

NO. 2.

CUMMING, GA., October 2, 1872.

Editors Constitution: The people of this county were disappointed yesterday, when General Garlington failed to make his appearance, but Hon. H. P. Bell, the nominee for Congress in this district, though suffering from indisposition, entertained our citizens for an hour in one of his most able and happy efforts. And by the by he has but few equals in the State, and I am satisfied the 9th district will never have cause to regret his nomination at Gainesville. I learn he will soon visit those counties in the eastern and southern portions of the district, and then they can judge for themselves. Last night Colonel Bell and Judge I. S. Clement addressed a respectable crowd of our colored friends, showing them who had been their friends and to whom they must look for favors, etc., and urging their support of Greeley and Smith.

Judge Clements who has been a reconstructionist or Liberal Republican, will do good service to-day for Gov. Smith.

At this writing, 11 o'clock A. M., 150 votes polled at this precinct, supposed to be about 40 for Walker, remainder for Gov. Smith.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

The Grant People Blue and Foreboding—Gov. Curtis—The Women—Radical Strategy—Items.

WASHINGTON, September 29, 1872.

The political skies are brightening in every direction, and the shadow of impending defeat rests upon the Radical camp. The jeers with which Mr. Greeley's first appearance before the people was greeted by the Granites have given way to dark and dismal forebodings. Mr. Greeley's triumphal march has been that of a conqueror. His audiences, whether composed of the farmers of the West or the miners of Pennsylvania, have applauded his words to the echo, and everywhere he has roused the wildest enthusiasm. His speeches in Pennsylvania have well-nigh deprived the corrupt Cameron-Hartranft ring of all hope. Their desperate plight is confessed by the purchasing of two convicts, who have been released from a just imprisonment, on the conditions that they perjure themselves to bolster up the waning fortunes of the ring. This act alone, in the opinion of prominent Republicans here, will lose Hartranft ten thousand votes, and ensures the election of Mr. Buckalew. Nor must we overlook the speech of ex-Governor Curtis, delivered at Bellefonte yesterday. This speech was received too late to be published in full in the papers of to-day, but it contains a damaging expose of the Cameron-Hartranft ring, and a strong endorsement of Buckalew. This is Governor Curtises first speech in the campaign. It will be followed by others equally as effective. Mr. Curtis does not, to the portion of the speech published, declare for Greeley, but is on side the Democrats and Liberals to carry Pennsylvania on the 8th of October, it will make very little difference which side he espouses in November. If the State is lost to Grant in the coming election he need not expect to get the electoral vote in the Presidential College It is intimated here that Curtis and Forney are in the same boat waiting to see what turn the tide will take. Should Hartranft be elected, they will declare for Grant; but in case of Buckalew's election, they will espouse the liberal cause. This may be an unjust conclusion so far as Mr. Curtis is concerned—Forney being notorious as a political prostitute—and I merely give it as a part of the gossip of the day. Turning from Pennsylvania to Ohio and Indiana, we find the prospects for carrying those States on the 8th quite exceedingly good. Mr. Greeley, in his speeches yesterday, expressed every confidence in the result; and he, having been over the ground, is well conciliated to form a correct opinion. In short, everything points now to the election of Greeley and Brown in November next.

MONUMENTS AND NOTES.

A number of female employees of the Treasury Engraving and Printing Bureau were "furloughed" last week, because of a further decrease of work. The work in other branches of the Government, however, which is light at best (or worst,) has decreased in as large if not larger proportion than in the Engraving Bureau, of late, yet no reduction in the number of employees has been made on that account. It is quietly given out, however, by heads of certain departments and bureaus, that after the approaching elections are over they intend to materially cut down the forces employed under them.

THE CABINET MEETINGS.

The Royal family having returned to Washington for the season, the meetings of the Cabinet are to be resumed. The first will be held on Tuesday, but it will be fully attended, some of the members being still engaged in electioneering, and so only routine business will be considered. On the 11th of October all the members of the Cabinet are expected to be in attendance, for the first time in many months. The result of the elections on the 8th prox. will then be known, and whatever be the result, they are sure to be the main topics of discussion.

Early visitors to the White House yesterday were informed that the President would not be visible until after one o'clock, P. M., and a report was circulated that the great Ulysses was in knew what tangled and required time to straighten out. The testimony of an eye-witness to this fact could not be obtained, however, and it is only fair to hold the man innocent until he is proved guilty.

RADICAL THREATS AGAINST EX-GOVERNOR CURTIS.

The Radicals threaten to expose Ex-Governor Curtis's connection with certain corporations in this county, should he decide to support Greeley. It is asserted by these vindictive Grantites that Curtis secured the mission to Russia for the express purpose of advancing the interests of the corporations in question. No such expose will be made if Curtis will endorse Grant. Such is the fate of all recalcitrant Republicans.

RADICAL'S "RAISING THE WIND."

A paper was handed around in the War Department, last week, asking subscriptions by clerks for political purposes. The person who carried the paper represented that it was circulated upon permission of the Secretary of War, whose name headed the list for one hundred and eighty dollars. Some of the clerks refused to contribute, whereupon it was intimated that dismissal would be their reward. Civil service reform!

EX-SECRETARY SEWARD'S BOOK

on his travels is ready for press. It is dedicated to Miss Olivia Risley, Mr. Seward's adopted daughter. The ex-Secretary is said to be quite feeble, and has to be carried about.

GRANT'S PHILADELPHIA SPEECH.

Numerous messages have been received by the President congratulating him upon the cleanliness (?) of his speech at Philadelphia on Thursday last.

The following is the non speech alluded to, verbatim:

GENTLEMEN AND MERCHANTS OF PHILADELPHIA: You have made much better speeches to-night than I could make if I were so inclined. I am very glad to see you, and am pleased to hear that you have been to hear such fine speeches, and how you have been engaged to-night.

GRANT IN THE WEST.

A prominent gentleman writes from Chicago that Grant will be badly beaten in the West, and the writer expresses the opinion that Eastern people cannot realize the extent of the Greeley movement in the Northwest.

PERSONAL.

Secretary Boutwell will return to Washington on Saturday next, to attend to the long neglected duties of his official position.

Gen. P. M. B. Young paid us a flying visit last week.

Mr. E. V. Smalley, of the New York Tribune, has returned to Washington from his tour of the South. TOMMY HADOK.

ROUGH FOR JUDGE.—"Don't you see that man there?" said a friend as we balanced our chairs against the pillars of the Parole, in the cool of the evening. I answered in the affirmative. "Well, he is, that man, once a stage driver, and also the convention of a Spanish desperado, who was sent to State Prison for four years, and whose term of service recently expired. The Spaniard swore revenge against the jury who found him guilty, and all others who directly or indirectly contributed to his punishment. The driver was shot at by him the other day, and now, rather than jeopardize his own life and the lives of his passengers, he declines to come into public thoroughfares to dodge bullets. That young fellow passing him, and coming this way, can tell you more about him. He's the man in his coat pocket." The Spaniard is also after him, but will meet with a warm reception, for this man is always fingering his derringer now, and will shoot through his pocket on the slightest provocation from his enemy. The Spaniard is lurking with short, shining dirk, while the bill about 40 men, peaceable, mostly jurors." San Francisco Bulletin.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.

AUGUSTA, GA., October 3.—Returns are coming in slowly. Partial returns from the following counties give Smith (Dem.) over 15,000 majority: Bartow, Bibb, Baldwin, Cobb, Catoosa, Clay Clayton, Chatham, Dougherty, Floyd, Fulton, Gordon, Henry, Lee, Lowndes, Monroe, Mitchell, Morgan, Muscogee, Murray, Pierce, Richmond, Spalding, Sumter, Terrel, Talbot, Whitfield, Wilkes, Warren. The official count of Chatham gives a Democratic majority of 2,940. The Republicans carried Decatur county by 606; and Thomas by 130. North Georgia has gone Democratic. It will be impossible to give anything more satisfactory to-night, but there appears to be no doubt that the Democrats have carried the State by 30,000 majority as a full vote has been polled in every county.

Captain Francis L. Norton, formerly of the Cuban steamer Pioneer, yesterday caused the arrest of Messrs. Morning Edition.

ATLANTA:

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1872.

☞ Mitchell, the new Radical legislator elect from Oregon, is only 36 years old. He went from California settling early in Oregon. He is a lawyer.

The Attempt to Make a Riot by the Radicals.

Everywhere over the State there seems to have been a preconcerted purpose among the Radicals to get up strife at the polls. This was done to intimidate the white, and get a pretext for interference with the result.

In Savannah, Bryant, the Revenue officer, tried it. In Macon a desperate attempt resulted in bloodshed. In Fulton, but for a cool, determined, watchful police we should have had trouble.

There never was a more resolute unscrupulous effort by a minority to carry an election by foul means than by the Radicals this time. But it failed ignominiously.

The Georgia Victory.

What the Democracy and Liberal Republicans of Georgia accomplish to-day, will have been effected by them, entirely without any external aid. We have heard of National and Central Executive Committees at New York, and Washington—which were doing wonders in aiding the State organizations, in carrying on the campaign—but, as far as Georgia is concerned, "solitary and alone, she set the ball in motion"—and, unaided, she has been allowed to roll it. Not a man, not a dollar has been sent into this State, on our side, while the enemy has sent many men and many dollars, to turn the tide, if possible.—Savannah Republican.

The above is literally true Not one scrap of outside aid has the Democracy in Georgia received in this contest, while the Radicals have had money and documents in abundance.

Radical Representatives Elected by Independent Candidacy.

Amid the general lustre of our great victory in Georgia, a victory due to our party unity, we see a few shadows thrown here and there by local defects that are the sadder because unnecessary and caused by our own divisions. Wherever there has been independent candidacy the party sumpremacy has been in danger, and in several cases we see that Radicals have crept in the crack of our rupture to power.

Catoosa county sends a Radical Representative by fifteen majority in a county Democratic largely, because the party strength had to be thrown away on two candidates.

Let us have no more ruch folly, especially in our national election.

☞ Here is another ungrateful Straight Out. The nominee for Governor of Indiana has just declined the honor which Morton so dearly bought for him, and now a dispatch from Joliet, Illinois, says that "the Hon. Sidney Breese, recently nominated by the Bourbon Democracy for Governor of this State, writes to a friend here that the nomination was made without his consent, and that he shall not accept it." Here is his letter:

OTTAWA, September 24, 1872.

To the Editor of the State Register:

I have seen in the public prints that I was nominated for Governor at a meeting held in your city, on the 20th inst. I am not advised under what authority the meeting was held, nor have I had any official notice of my nomination. Please state in your paper that the nomination was made without any consultation with me, was without my consent and is against my wishes. I am content with my present position, and have no desire to mingle in politics, nor will I willingly do aught to embarrass my friends, whose views in this regard are quite in a different direction. I wish it distinctly understood I am not and will not be the candidate.

Yours, very respectfully,
(Signed) SIDNEY BREESE.

The half dozen followers of Mr. Joseph Ledlie here are exceedingly chop-fallen.

Morrisey's Bets on the Pennsylvania Election.

The Philadelphia Press of this morning contains an interview with Jno. Morrisey by one of its reporters, wherein the New York ex-congressman, who was in Philadelphia at the time, thus states his faith in the October elections. After a careful survey of the field John says: From all I can learn, after hearing both sides, and especially from the men who control elections here, I believe Pennsylvania will elect Buckalew. In consequence of that information, I have already taken two bets one of $4,000 to $5,000, and another of $1,700 to $2,000 on Buckalew. I am prepared to bet $10,000 even that Hartranft does not carry this city by 11,000 majority. I will bet $10,000 even that Buckalew will come to this city with 8,500 majority. I believe he will come with 15,000 majority, but I would not bet it. I will bet $2,000 to $1,000 that the Democrats will carry Ohio, Pennsylvania and Indiana. I heard to-day from a reliable source that there had been already $100,000 bet in this hotel on Buckalew.—Dispatch to St. Louis Republican.

Of all the curious features of political campaigns the gambling part is one of the most peculiar, and in some respects instructive. It involves to a large degree the very science of the probabilities of the canvass.

It brings a cool mathematical severe scrutiny to test the chances, and stakes dollars on the die as a pure pecuniary speculation. Unfinenced by sympathy or principle, bent only to reap money, and careless of the result save for that end, it judges the issue with the coolness of the metaphoric cucumber and at the same time the searching skill of the differential calculus.

It is not uninteresting and unprofitable in casting the horoscope of the conclusion, to look at the decisions of the professional gamblers. We may be certain that the run of the bets will foreshadow with tolerable certainty the manner of the verdict.

Applying this test, we find among the other multitudinous and tolerably sure auguries of Greeley's success the above bets of Morrisey, one of the scientific and professional political experts of the day.

☞ The local issues of Effingham county have been brought down to a fine point. Up to Monday, there were three candidates in the field for the Legislature—Mr. Christian Foy, the regular Democratic nominee; Mr. Shadrack Grovenstein, Straight-out, and a negro. We are informed, however, that Sloan, Sams and Turner, of this city, recently went to Springfield and induced the negro to come down in favor of Grovenstein, and had resolutions passed pledging the Radical element to his support. This scheme seems to have been brought about through the agency of the Savannah Custom House Ring—an agency detestable and villainous enough to insure success to any party opposed thereto, and of this success the Democrats are very hopeful.—Savannah News.

☞ The Straight-out Democrats of Illinois nominated Judge Breese for Governor, but he declined. With this failure to raise a Breese, they are not likely to carry the State by storm.—Courier-Journal.

The Election of Governor Smith.

As the hour of this writing THE CONSTITUTION has received special telegraic reports from fifty-two counties of the 137 in the State. Of these fifty counties have given Governor Smith a majority of 27,227, and two counties, McIntosh and Thomas, give Walker a majority of 710. Thus in fifty-two counties Smith's majority is 27,217. In the remaining eighty-five counties the same proportionate majority would be 44,489, giving Smith a majority in the whole State of 71,706. But the remaining counties will probably not poll as large a vote, and Walker will carry some counties.

If the remaining 85 counties do one-third as well, Smith's majority will run to 40,000. This is pretty certain while from 45,000 to 50,000 is not improbable.

Under all the circumstances the victory is a magnificient one.

It shows the true weakness of Georgia Radicalism. It is a Sedan defeat. It is a blow from which the Radical party will not soon, if ever, recover. It has been one of the most stunning political defeats ever recorded. It has demonstrated the power and invincibility of the united respectable intelligent element of the State. Only in the divisions of the true people of Georgia can the State Radical party ever rear again its bruised serpent head.

Some of the county victories are remarkable. They show a vitality and a management in the Democracy that are simply extraordinary.

The splendid majorities in Houston, Troup, Wilkes, Richmond, Dougherty, and other counties show the very back-bone of Radicalism in the State to be broken.

It is, indeed, a proud triumph of the Georgia Democracy. Something is due too to the Liberal Republicans who have stood gallantly to the Democratic nominees.

We breathe freer. Good government has been signally indorsed. We have nothing to fear from the return of misrule.

But apart from our local cause of rejoicing, this victory will carry encouragement to the struggling Democracy in those broad and important battle fields of Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania, on the 8th. The echoes of our triumph will carry glad cheer and strengthening stimulus to our friends in those States. We have sounded the paean of victory that they will catch up and translate into a glorious minstrelsy of success that will gather volume and become a national anthem, we sincerely hope in the memorable ides of November.

The lesson of our victory is plain. It shows what we can do united. Let us keep our ranks unbroken. Let us maintain our unity so gloriously illustrated.

General Campaign Notes.

Private advices from Louisiana to the New York Sun puts Greeley's majority in that State at from 10,000 to 20,000.

Judge Thomas M. Cooley, one of the Justices of the Supreme Court of Michigan, a staunch Republican, is a zealous supporter of Greeley and Brown.

The colored men of Edgecombe, N. C., have organized a Greeley and Brown club. Twenty-five of them had the courage to originate the movement.

The Western papers which are claiming New York for Grant can get a bet that she will give Greeley plump 50,000 majority by calling at the office of the Troy Times.

Eli Thayer, of Massachusetts, formerly a member of Congress, a leading Free Soiler and Republican, and old supporter of Grant, is now enthusiastically for Greeley.

Of the seven men already nominated for Congress in South Carolina, on both sides, five are negroes. Cain, Rainey, Ransier, and Elliot are the colored men put in nomination by the "regular Radicals," while Joseph Qunsh, ex-plantation hand, is the opposition candidate for Congressman at large.

At all events, as in 1856 and 1868, the October results in the State elections of Pennsylvania, Indiana and Ohio, and mainly in Pennsylvania, will settle the question of the Presidential election of November. Hence this great excitement in Pennsylvania.

GOVERNOR CURTIN'S OPINION ON THE RESULT IN PENNSYLVANIA.

The Herald, of Tuesday, has a report of an interview with Governor Curtin the day before as to the result in Pennsylvania, from which the following is an extract:

Regarding the Presidential contest he says there were in Pennsylvania thousands of as yet undecided voters, who would be influenced by the State election and the prospects of success. The majority of these do not like to vote and are waiting to see the tide set against him. Upon these the letter and forthcoming action of Mr. Curtin will have a great effect. The Radical Republicans had now exhausted themselves, and could do nothing more, while their opponents yet had the time before them until November to add to their strength. He stated that if Buckalew was elected the vote of the State was as certain for Greeley as any future could be. He cited the case of the election in 1856, when the Democrats carried the State by about 2,700 in October, and Mr. Buchanan's majority was 18,000 or 20,000, and anticipated a similar result this fall.

PENNSYLVANIA, OHIO AND INDIANA.

Among the visitors at the headquarters were a number of Pennsylvanians, the most prominent of whom was Senator Wallace. In answer to questions in regard to the result in his State, he replied, "There was not a particle of doubt that it would go for Buckalew by a very heavy majority." From Ohio similar good news was received by Mr. Schell, to the effect that "the Democratic State Central Committee and Liberal Republican Committee, after a careful and complete canvass of every town in the State, report that the Democratic State ticket will be elected by about 10,000 majority, and from present appearances it was thought the figure would be still higher." The Committee also added that the presence of Mr. Greeley in the Buckeye State and his magnificent speeches were the means of gaining thousands of votes for the Liberals. Accounts from Indiana were also cheering, and it appears that Hendricks' election is conceded by the best informed Radicals in the State. The only open question is the majority.—New York World, September 28th.

ALABAMA.

Our gallant candidate for the office of Attorney General of the State of Alabama was in the city yesterday, jubilant over the prospects for our ticket in North Alabama. He says that the mountains are alive with working enthusiasm, and that the Democratic Conservative and Liberal voters of the avalanche counties will come out on election day in numbers that will carry consternation and dismay to the hearts of the Radical negroes and their few white drivers in this section of the State.

PENNSYLVANIA.

The strength of the rival candidates up to ten days ago was pretty evenly divided. At present it is decidedly in favor of the Liberal ticket so far as State politics are concerned. With regard to national politics there is not so much certainty. The Liberals have no doubt of Buckalew's election—this the Republicans concede. Should Buckalew be elected, the moral effect is to bring about a complete revolution in favor of Mr. Greeley. N. Y. Herald.

The Milwaukee Sentinel concedes that Greeley will carry Missouri by 30,000 majority.

MR. GREELEY AT INDIANAPOLIS.

The grand reception given to Mr. Greeley at Indianapolis must have been gall and wormwood to Senator Morton. The scene at night is thus described by a correspondent of the New York Tribune:

As the darkness came on, nearly every prominent building in the city, all the hotels, all the great stores and business establishments fronting on the main thoroughfares, had been transformed into masses of illumination. Miles of fronts were covered with parti-colored lamps, and at regular intervals burning cordons of swinging lights were strung on glittering pennents from street to street. The metamorphosis had been like fairy work. Looking from the Bates House corner, the eight converging avenues were seen aflame with lights, and alive with marching men bearing torches and dressed in white caps. Nothing much had been expected, and Gov. Randolph, after watching the procession and the crowding multitudes, said emphatically:

"I have seen many great political demonstrations for forty years, but I never saw the equal of this astonishing exhibition." There seemed to be miles of converging lines of men marching down to a common centre through broad avenues. Then came troops of horsemen, gaily apparelled and bearing flaming torches. These were followed by immense moving processions, with young girls dressed in white and bearing banners. From beginning to end the demonstration was a surprise. Mr. Greeley had not been apprised of any purpose of the kind on the part of the committee, and none of the party were prepared for the result. Speaking of the affair during the evening, Mr. Alvord and Mr. Finch declared that if the railroads could have furnished transportation the number could have been swelled by 20,000 people from the neighboring towns, who were eager to take part in the proceeding.

Dan Voorhees says that his district, the Sixth Indiana, is good for 2,000 majority for Hendricks.

William M. Tweed's confidential secretary is boasting of the number of Democrats that Tweed will transfer to Grant. Fellow-feeling of corruptionists is wonderfully strong.

A correspondent in McKean county, Penn., says there are 250 Liberal Republicans in that county. The average Republican majority in the county, which is a small one, has been 200.

Greeley stock is going up. Bets on the general result are being made daily in this city. The Liberals have given up all hope of an opportunity to bet on Mr. Hendricks' election, as no takers can be found.—Evansville (Ind.) Courier.

The chairman of the Democratic State Committee of Wisconsin feels confident of carrying that State in November by 6,000, and also of carrying the State Legislature. It is also claimed that a large majority of the Germans of that State will vote for Greeley.

Minnesota gave 15,000 Republican majority in a full vote for Governor last year; but the prospects of a Liberal victory in November is now so alarming to Grant people, that it is openly stated, on the streets of St. Paul, that $100,000 will be expended to save the five electoral votes of the State for Grant.

The Milwaukee News says of the German vote in Wisconsin: "This vote alone, if not an American Republican in the State had abandoned the Grantites, would almost secure Wisconsin for Greeley. With the American Liberal Republican vote, no State, except possibly Missouri, Kentucky, and New York, is surer for Greeley than is Wisconsin."

Steuben county, N. Y., gave Grant 2,200 majority in 1868, and promises as much for Greeley this year. Many old Republicans of local prominence and influence are working for Greeley.

PITTSBURG, September 28.—The word immense does not properly express the proportions of the Liberal mass meeting held tonight at the Battery, which was addressed by Senator Doolittle, Edgar Cowan, Thomas M. Marshall, David D. Bruce, and Dr. Paine. The streets which faced the stand were in such a state of unparalleled jam that it was impossible, when once in the throng to more than move one's extremities. The crowd extended far beyond the limits of the voice of the speakers, and as for marching clubs they could not get within three squares of the speaking stands. The streets as far as the eye could carry were ablaze with torches, while the dwelling in the neighborhood of the place of meeting were gorgeously illuminated. It was a demonstration not much inferior in numbers to that one on the occasion of the visit of Schurz, and day by day the ranks of the Democracy swell with astonishing rapidity, and each turnout surpasses previous ones. The air rings to-night with shouts for Buckalew and Greeley, mingled with blowing of brass horns and the pounding of drums. There is no question about it. Buckalew will sweep this State like a hurricane, and all the unfair means the desperate Radical politicians may have resort to cannot prevent it. The pardoning of Yerkes and Marcer has occasioned much talk here and many were drawn to the meeting to hear what was said about it. In the opening speech Mr. Doolittle read an editorial on this subject from this evening's Chronicle, all along one of the staunchest Radical papers in the State and a supporter of the Administration tooth and nail. But this last action of Governor Geary is too much for it and it has struck its colors to-day. The articles read:

"The crowning transgression of this campaign has been committed. Charles T. Yerkes has been pardoned on condition that he make certain affidavits affecting the character of one of the candidates in the State election. Not a paper has denied that Yerkes was properly convicted and sentenced. Not a man, not a paper has openly extenuated his guilt, or suggested any reason why he should be pardoned Even the Democrats and Liberals who referred to the man to impugn if not acquit it did not vouch for his character. They always spoke of him as a confederate in the crime. And now, on the eve of the election, his prison doors are thrown open, and this man is permitted to walk out that he may make affidavits which it is supposed may help elect John F. Hartranft Governor of Pennsylvania. If this be not a shameless transaction, chaos is come again. It has not the slightest veneering of decency about it. It is an insult to the people of the State, and one of such an astonishing character that we are amazed that the most audacious politicians should venture it. The, penitentiary is pressed into the canvass. There is no lower deep to sound. What say the people?

After reading the article the Senator made some humorous allusion to the change in sentiment of the people and press of this State, which were received with great cheering. He then commenced his speech, which occupied a full hour in delivery. It was one of the most able arguments ever heard in the city since the opening of the campaign. It was a clear and forcible address, and over the immense crowd his words rung out cheerily. Hardly ever has a political speech been listened to with such earnest attention, the crowd remaining, and with their eyes fixed on the speaker, until he had concluded, when they give vent to their feelings in rousing cheers. Senator Doolittle was followed by Edgar Cowan, who dwelt considerably on the shameful manner in which our State is now governed, and how sadly reform was needed. He alluded to the pardon of Yerkes, which was done for the purpose that he might deny his own affidavits and help Hartranft out of his scrape, styling it the most monstrous abuse of the pardoning power ever perpetrated by a Governor of Pennsylvania.

When I shall rest cam'ly in a shawl,
With a weeping widow by my side.

☞ The Lexington, (Ky.) Observer and Reporter reports the following: "Our veteran County Judge, on last Saturday, while listening to a tedious argument was overcome by sleep—well, in fact, nodded. One of the young attorneys reproached him for not listening. Rousing himself and rubbing his eyes, his Honor shouted: 'Mr. Sheriff, take that man to jail; I intend to put a stop to the impudence of these lawyers. This Court has been on the bench long enough to understand a case just as well when it's asleep as when it's awake.'"

The heel of the oppressor is lifted from our necks and the cold iron from our hearts. We look up to heaven and thank God for a new redemption and a glorious resurrection. For the first time in seven years Coweta lifts up her head and sings the jubilee songs of freedom. We feel good, and no mistake. The enemy is routed, horse, foot and dragoons, leaving their carpet-bags on the blood-red field of fame. Radicalism dead—funeral at the polls yesterday. ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, October 3.—Congress at its last session established a United States Court for the Western District of North Carolina, but failed to make any provision for the appointment of a United States Marshal. There could be no court without a Marshal, and the Marshal of the Eastern District could not act because his jurisdiction is limited to the Western District. No grand or petit juries could be summoned without a Marshal and no money could be drawn from the treasury to pay the expenses of the court. In the absence of such an officer, to meet this unexpected emergency, Marshal Carrow is appointed as disbursing agent of the Department of Justice and under this appointment has just drawn $30,000 from the treasury to pay the expenses of the court.

The British Claims Commission is again in session here.

Cigars and cigarettes seized for violations of the custom regulations which do not bring the value of the necessary stamps will be destroyed.

In the afternoon a relative named Fox drove the runaway team to the village for the purpose of procuring a coffin for the deceased, and in crossing the Central Railroad track a locomotive collided with the wagon, and Fox and the horses were killed. The locomotive and two or three cars were thrown into a ditch. No person on the train was injured.

SAVANNAH, GA., October 3.—The money sent here from Washington to pay the poll taxes of the negroes was appropriated by the white Radical managers, who gave the negroes bogus receipts. This swindling operation deprived a large number of negroes of their votes, which caused great indignation among the negroes. They also collected money from the negroes to pay poll taxes and kept it, giving the same bogus receipts.

MEETING OF THE THIRD WARD DEMOCRACY

A goodly number of the Third Ward Democrats met at the City Hall on Thursday night, October 3.

Mr. William Gray, President of the Third Ward Democratic Club, called the meeting to order, and announced the business to be a reorganization of the old club.

On motion a committee of three—D. A. Bale, W. G. Anderson and Arthur Conley were appointed to nominate officers.

The committee reported, for President, Mr. William Gray; for Vice Presidents, Mr. Jack Bulce and Mr. A. Bonnier; for Secretary, Mr. W. A. Bonnell. The report was adopted.

The President was authorized to confer with the Presidents of the other city clubs in regard to the nomination of municipal officers.

Col. R. Y. Clarke was invited to address the club at such time and place as may be selected. It was resolved to meet every Thursday night. Messrs. Hammond, Roach, Billyer and others made remarks. Thanks were returned to Pat. Fitzgibbons for his address. Adjourned to meet in the City Hall Thursday night next.

The old Third Ward, noted for her political energy, is rousing for the campaign. The other clubs may look to their honors.

THE JEWISH NEW YEAR.—Yesterday the places of business of our Hebrew friends were all closed, the day being celebrated by them as their New Year. It began on Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock, and closed at 6:30 P. M., yesterday evening.

According to tradition, as stated by Rabbi Eliezer, the earth was created on the first day of Tishri, which is the seventh month of the Jewish ecclesiastical year. Hence it is the ancient New York's Day, Anno Mundi, and in according to the biblical history, Adam and Eve were born.

It is very probable that since the return of Zorubabel to Palestine, this day was considered the civil new year. In the Hebrew, it is called "Resh Hashanah," "New Year," or "Yom Hazikaron," "the Day of Remembrance," or "Yom Teruah," the day of blowing the trumpet. All work must cease on this day and among the Jews it is looked upon as a day of judgment, and the ceremonies are of a solemn and important character. The blowing of the trumpet on New Year's Day was an ancient sign of homage to God, acknowledging Him as the sole Creator and King of the universe, and is intended to arouse the heart and mind of the people to renew their allegiance to God. It is said that by all the blessings He has showered upon them during the past year; to represent upon the people the happiness they enjoyed, all the sorrows and anxieties they had to endure, and to encourage them to make better or worse they had grown, to repent all their misdeeds, and to amend their conduct, return to the paths of righteousness, and endeavor to become more worthy of God's benevolent blessing.

GRAND DEMOCRATIC.

Able Speeches by Governor Smith, Hon. B. H. Hill and Hon. Cincinnatus Peoples.

Great Enthusiasm.

Last night, in response to the call made in THE CONSTITUTION, a large crowd, headed by a band of music, proceeded to the Executive Mansion.

General Garlington made a few remarks, when Governor Smith addressed the large assemblage. He was repeatedly and enthusiastically cheered. He regretted that he could not address the people at length.

He drew a contrast between the Democratic and Republican Gubernatorial Conventions. The first represented the virtue, intelligence, and wealth of Georgia; the latter ignorance, stupidity and Federal office holders. The majority on Wednesday had said in emphatic terms that virtue and modesty should rule Georgia.

There was another battle to be fought. If it was not won the victory of Wednesday would lose its fruits. Great repentance, centralized despotism; Greeley representative party casting equal rights for all, and an unfettered and hopeful administration of the Government. Which will you choose? [Voices—"Horace Greeley."]

He gave good advice to the Straights. So far as State rights was concerned, A. H. Stephens and Greeley were identically together. It was strange that Democrats were afraid to trust themselves with Greeley! He inherited nothing but Democrasy from his father. He was not afraid to trust himself with Greeley. Greeley could not make him believe what he did not want to. Loud calls were made for Hon. B. H. Hill. He responded in an eloquent and impassioned effort. Colonel C. Peeples also responded to calls in one of his happiest efforts. A full report of all the speeches will appear in the afternoon edition.

THE LITTLE JOKER.

Foster Blodgett Charged With Forgery.

He is Arrested in Columbia, S. C., but Discharged.

Troubles of His Bondsmen.

Blodgett Charges Minton With Perjury.

It will be recollected that M. J. Hinton is one of the unfortunate men who stood on the official bond of Foster Blodgett, as Treasurer of the Western and Atlantic Railroad. Blodgett was discovered to be a debtor to the State in the sum of $50,000 or $60,000. He fled the State and took shelter under the redoubtable Governor of South Carolina, thus far escaping scot-free of arrest.

In the meantime the property of his bondsmen was attached for the debt due by him to the State of Georgia.

They resisted the attachment on the ground that the superintendent of the Western and Atlantic Railroad had not notified the Governor of this indebtedness. This was impossible, the Superintendent being the defaulter, and the Governor his pardoner. The case is now carried up to the Supreme Court of Georgia, and that tribunal decided against the bondsmen.

Mr. M. J. Hinton proceeded to Columbia, South Carolina, to have the "Li tle Joker" arrested.

The Daily Union of the 2d thus details the affair:

A case of more than ordinary interest and importance came up before Trial Justice Richmond yesterday morning, being a case against the Hon. Foster Blodgett, late of Georgia. The case attracted a large number of people.

The affidavits is, as made by Martin J. Hinton, of Atlanta, Georgia, as the warrant sets forth, "that one Foster Blodgett did on the 1st day of July, 1869, forge, or cause to be forged the name of George P. Burnett on an official bond for the sum of $100,000, as Treasurer of the Western and Atlantic Railroad, the same being a bond for money." The warrant was issued by Trial Justice Richmond, and Mr. Blodgett, although sick and confined to his room, voluntarily surrendered himself into the custody of the court. Le Roy F. Youmans, Esq., appeared for the complainant, and S. L. Hoge, Esq., for the defense. The prisoner pleaded "not guilty" to the charge, and demanded trial or preliminary examination.

Mr. Youmans said, in opening, that the case was one of a very grave nature, and it was necessary that he prosecution obtain evidence now beyond the Savannah river. It was impossible to obtain the official bond now filed in the archives of the State of Georgia, and he therefore requested, that before commitment, bail, or discharge of the prisoner, further time be granted.

Mr. Hoge opposed any continuance. The party arrested was in court, and he believed that he had been arrested with the evident intent to annoy him. The parties commencing the prosecution of such grave charges against a citizen of South Carolina should be prepared with their evidence to support them. Therefore he urged that the case be immediately proceeded with. The party had been dragged out of bed.

Mr. Youmans said he could obtain the evidence desired shortly, and urged a continuance. The person here was not so fortunate as the defense, being a citizen of Georgia. They could again cause arrest.

Mr. Hoge said they were ready to answer as often as arrested, if forty times a month.

Mr. Youmans thought it would be no great inconvenience to the prisoner to continue a week, when they could be prepared to go on or abandon.

Mr. Hoge felt that the only evidence would be the official bond. He demanded, therefore, the discharge of the prisoner this morning. Mr. Youmans insisted on a week's continuance, as a common practice under such circumstances. Mr. Hoge called attention to the fact that the affidavit was made charging forgery in 1869. His client had been a citizen of Georgia, and from information he (Hoge) had, the opinion that it was an attempt to levy blackmail. Mr. Youmans argued that the irregularity had only recently been discovered. Trial Justice Richmond in summing up, stated in substance that if the parties came here to prosecute so grave a charge against a citizen they certainly should have come prepared with evidence. He certainly could not hold a citizen of South Carolina in durance vile on such a charge. He, therefore, should order the case to proceed. Mr. Youmans stated he had no further evidence present to offer. The prisoner was then ordered to be discharged. Mr. Youmans—"Without bail?" The Trial Justice—"Yes, without bail."

Mr. Hoge then asked a warrant for the arrest of Minton, for wilful perjury. The parties then left the court room, and Messrs. Hoge and Black set repaired to the office to prepare the necessary papers.

This case is a somewhat singular one, and any one who has read up carefully the extensive proceedings that have been had in Atlanta can better understand it. Suffice it to say that one of the bondsmen's property has been attached. He is a Northern man, settled there in 1869, and finds himself left with a large family and likely to be penniless. All are Republicans of good standing who have been hampered at every turn by the strong feeling of the opposition, who doubtless find comfort in the "Jones just excited."

Mr. Hinton has arrived here, and will return with the necessary proof of the alleged forgery.

Mr. Hinton and Captain Matherson arrived in Columbia, S. C., on Saturday at 12 M. They learned that Blodgett had left for the country, and would be back on Monday. They had an interview with the Governor and other officials, who appeared to listen to their statements with much sympathy. They had an interview with Blodgett on his return. As Blodgett was leaving the dining room he saw Hinton and rushed to his bed chamber, and there he remained pretended to be quite sick.

He sent word by Ed. Blodgett that he would give Hinton and Matherson an interview at 5 o'clock. In the meantime he had consulted with his attorney. At five o'clock they were shown to his room. He was sick in bed, and his attorney was present. He informed them that they had no design of black mailing him or persecuting him. They had come for the purpose of having him arrested, and he would be let down as easy as possible. He was informed that Blodgett would give bail in the sum of $10,000 and that his attorney would be accepted. Blodgett said he would not borrow the money and take any favors. Now for his apparently quick recovery. Minton and Matherson then left Blodgett under the impression that Blodgett would leave the State, which he had already commenced himself "on the square" that he would not leave his room. Acting under advice they procured a warrant for Blodgett, and did not inform Blodgett of it. Blodgett attempted to escape. The vigilant eye of an officer was there and the warrant was on him. He was arrested with the result stated above.

No. 20. Macon Circuit. Western Union Telegraph Company, et al., vs. the Southern and Atlantic Telegraph Company. Injunction, from Bibb, argued. Lyon & Irwin, for plaintiff in error. A. O. Bacon, contra.

Pending the reading of the record in the above case, the Court adjourned until 10 o'clock A. M. to-morrow.

NEVER MIX.—This term—and a very proper instruction—is occasionally disregarded by some, and was especially so by an old man yesterday. He brought with him to the city a jug of doubtless a pure article of corn juice, but while in the city he mixed it with too much beer. He seemed to have imbibed some of the spurious spoken of by the imperial pood, Dr. Kennet: "I don't know him," "Scratch the wall," "Ain't I?" "Murder and assassination," "Glory Goodsun," etc. At last he landed in a house of questionable reputation, and there drinking beer, doubtless he imagined him in the Walhalla with Odin, having pretty young girls handing him his glass. He was taken from this place, and we presume "Father, dear father, come home," was heard in his dwelling last night.

THE STATE FAIR.—Every day we are convinced that the approaching Fair will be a success. The management are pushing matters ahead, and will do their part to make everything pass off pleasantly and agreeably. On yesterday the beautiful Trinby Horse Power Engine, from the works of Todd & Rafferty, was received. This engine is intended to drive the machinery at the Fair.

We are informed that one of Aveling & Porter's road locomotives will be shipped from New York in a few days, for exhibition.

R. H. Allen & Co., of New York, will send out some of their blooded stock, also for exhibition.

From the interest being manifested that the Fair will be a highly creditable one.

[Written by Miss Kate Holmes, and read by her at the reception given by the Young Lady Juniors of the Oakland Seminary.]

Tiny baby fingers, dimpled, pink and white,
Pulling mamma's cheek, playing baby fight;
Pulling mamma's hair, puzzling mamma's eyes,
Looking sometimes naughty, sometimes very wise.
Oh, you little fingers, wonder's with and joy,
Do you know their worth, cunning baby boy?

Busy, restless fingers, brown with dirt and sun,
Playing mamma's soldiers, with saw dirk and gun;
Breaking sister's pies of mud, that were so nice and thick;
Catching fish in Bridget's milk with reed and dirty stick.
Precious childish fingers, meddling everywhere,
Father in Heaven keep them safe from every snare.

Pale, boyish fingers, turning page on page
The weary little sufferer to cheerfully engage;
Plaiting baby brother's little whips of grass,
Smoothing sister's golden curls, when curls and sister pass.
Mother's darling fingers, always doing good,
Father wouldn't change them even if he could.

Slender, taper fingers, folded white and cold,
Clasping silvery lilies, sleeping 'neath the mould.
Soon may be twining wreaths for some spirit head—
For while in Heaven they're living, on earth we call them dead.
Fare angel fingers, lost to those at home,
But found to those in Paradise, and greeted as they come.

Safe Transit of Passenger and Construction Trains Below Trenton.

Arrest of the Sheriff of Dade and His Posse for Obstructing the Mails.

The Arrested Parties Released Upon Parole.

The Georgia Authorities Determined to Resist the Passage of Any More Trains.

From the Chattanooga Times, 1st.]

Major T. J. Carille arrived yesterday from Mobile with the necessary process from the United States Court authorizing the United States Marshals to give possession of the Alabama and Chattanooga Railroad to the Receivers appointed by Justice Bradley.

Mr. W. H. Carlile left for Atlanta yesterday morning to get the papers countersigned by the United States Commissioner at Atlanta and return this morning.

A passenger train will start this morning at 7 o'clock with United States Marshals to take possession of the road for the Receivers.

A construction train of fifteen cars with a large force of laborers under Mr. J. P. Stanton will follow the passenger train, and work will be commenced at once wherever it may be required.

The following telegram was received yesterday by Mr. Stanton:

TUSCALOOSA, ALA., September 30, 1872.

To J. C. Stanton, General Manager Alabama and Chattanooga Railroad, Chattanooga, Tennessee:

For myself and in behalf of your numerous friends in Tuscaloosa, I congratulate you and your friends' success. When shall we see you in Tuscaloosa.

JOHN S. KENNIDY.

The creditors down in Dade, who have judgment liens against the road, seem to believe that by assisting the State to enforce its lien, they will be able to make their own claims secure afterwards.

They declare that the road cannot be sun without their claims as well as the State's are paid, and the attorney for the State and the creditors, Mr. Graham, we are told, declared that he would tear up the track and burn the bridges before the State should yield possession.

From the Chattanooga Times, Oct. 3.]

Yesterday morning the mail and passenger train on the Alabama and Chattanooga Railroad left at 7:30, preceded by a construction train under the charge of J. P. Stanton, Superintendent of Construction. This train carried provisions and material and about 200 hands, who will at once proceed to repair the track.

On the passenger train were most of the officials of the road and Mr. W. R. Carlile, who had been deputised by Marshal Symth, of Atlanta, to serve the injunction granted by Justice Bradley and also warrant granted upon his affidavit, for the arrest of Sheriff O'Neal and his posse, upon the charge of stopping the United States mail.

The train arrived at Trenton about ten o'clock, A. M., and the warrants and injunctions were served. The passenger and construction trains then passed on to Atlanta and Birmingham, and the train stopped at Trenton the 25th ult., were taken into possession and most of the officers of the railroad returned to them, arriving here at 1 P. M.

The following citizens of Dade county were arrested on the charge of stopping the United States mail: Sheriff J. W. O'Neal, E. T. Rogers, J. D. Williamson, E. D. Graham, J. A. Bonnett. Upon arrival here they did not wish to go to Atlanta, to wait for trial, they were released upon their promise to be ready to answer any charges, when called for.

A passenger train will leave for Birmingham this morning at the usual hour, 7:30.

From conversation with the parties arrested, we are satisfied that a very bitter and determined spirit exists in Dade county. They characterized the party which attended the Deputy Marshal as a "mob," and assured us that there were 500 able-bodied men in Dade who were bound to enforce the orders of Governor Smith and hold possession of the road. They informed us that the Sheriff, acting under orders from Governor Smith, had made half a dozen deputies, who would act, one at a time, summoning the force of the county, and would stop every train that attempted the county, unless they were driven off by force.

On the other hand, Hon. D. S. Printup stated to us that he considered the rights of the Receivers, under Justice Bradley's decree, superior to those of all other parties, Georgia included, and that he had advised Mr. Stanton to go on and run the trains; and if they were stopped to make no resistance himself, but simply to call upon the United States for troops, which they were bound to furnish, to enforce the orders of the Federal Courts.

We understand that this is the true statement of the facts in the case, and we feel that the people of Dade county and Gov. Smith are in danger of precipitating a conflict with the Federal Government which must seriously damage them as well as injure the credit of the whole South. We fear that Gov. Smith has forgotten that the times have changed since Gov. Troup of Georgia was able to intimidate the administration of John Quincy Adams. The present administration would like nothing better for campaign purposes than to have conflict forced upon it of such a nature as this, which would at once be seized upon as proof of incipient rebellion.

We trust that the wiser counsels will prevail, and that the law may take its course.

EMIGRATION OF SQUIRRELS FROM ARKANSAS TO TENNESSEE—THEY SWIM THE MISSISSIPPI.—For the past six or eight weeks great numbers of squirrels have been noticed emigrating from Arkansas to Tennessee. At the foot of Island 35, as far down as the head of 26, a distance of some twenty-five miles, when the Mississippi River is spoken of they are founda dead in water, the squirrels have been in the habit of swimming the river, and during the time named great droves are known to have crossed. As the steamer Celeste passed up on her last trip to Hale's Point she nearly ran over a little fellow, and the high waves made by the boat's wheel swamped him so that he drowned while the vessel was in sight. On the down trip of the Celeste, while wooding at Brown's Landing, several squirrels made the bank from the opposite side so much exhausted that they were barely able to creep up under the wood pile, where they were easily captured by the hands and they are reported to be in an exhausted condition after their long swim, by numerous people residing near the river, who have been noticing their movements for some time past. Whether the mast is short in Arkansas this season, and starvation is thus driving them over the wide Mississippi in search of better nut groves, or whether it is merely a freak of fancy on the part of the squirrel tribe is something that puzzles the river folks up the country no little, and is a question which we fellow able to solve just now.—Memphis Avalanche.

☞ The enormous drain upon the Federal Court Fund to carry the elections in North Carolina and Maine has exhausted the entire appropriation intended to meet the United States Court expenses in all the States. The appropriation was larger than ever before, yet it has been exhausted before the fiscal year is half gone—all up to re-elect Grant—and now the entire Federal Courts of the country will have to run on the tick until Congress meets in December.—Herald.

LASTING LOVELINESS.—Twenty years ago when paint, pearl powder and enamel, were ruining the complexions and destroying the health of women of fashion, Hagan's Magnolia Balm was brought out as a pure botanical cosmetic, guaranteed to restore bloom and beauty to the skin. From that time to the present it has been continually rising in public estimation as the safest and most unexceptionable preparation of its class. Instead of producing an artificial, metallic surface, like the deadly enamels, or wilting the cuticle like the poisonous fluids sold under various names as "beautifiers," it keeps the skin as soft as velvet, renders it as smooth and glossy as satin, and imparts to it that delicate, rosy tinge, which is the beau ideal of complexional loveliness. This exquisite cosmatic effect is not transient. By applying the Balm daily it may be prolonged from youth to age. A lady who purchased the first bottle of the article nineteen years ago, writes to say that her complexion at forty is "purer, clearer and more brilliant than it has ever been," and she attributes its beauty solely to the daily use of Hagan's Magnolia Balm.

NATURAL DECAY—PROTECT THE SYSTEM. The human body is a machine, and therefore cannot endure forever; but, like a watch or sewing machine, it will last much longer if properly regulated and duly repaired, than if no pains were taken to keep it in order. The great object of every one who desires a long and healthy life should be to put his body in a condition to resist the life-threatening influences by which we are all more or less surrounded; and no invigorant and corrective at present known so effectively answers this purpose as the vitalizing elixir which, under the unpretending name of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, has been for more than twenty years the standard tonic of America. In crowded cities, where the atmosphere is contaminated with the effluvia inseparable from large populations; in marshy regions, where the soggy soil reeks with miasma; on the prairies and in the forests, where every fall the air is tainted with exhalations from rotting weeds and grasses, or decomposing leaves—in short, in every locality where malaria exists, this powerful vegetable antidote is urgently needed. Fever and ague, bilious fevers, dysentery, congestion of the liver, jaundice, rheumatism, and all diseases which are generated by infected air, impure water, or sudden changes of temperature, may be averted by strengthening and regulating the system in advance with Hostetter's Bitters. Autumn is always a season of peril, especially to weak, susceptible organizations. Even the more vigorous are apt to be in some measure depressed by the humid atmosphere, loaded with deleterious gases produced by vegetable decay. The fall is a period of the year when the renovation and regulation of the living machine is peculiarly important, and the Bitters should therefore be taken daily at this critical season.

BLESSINGS brighten as they take their flight. The chief of blessings is good health, without which nothing is worth the having; it is always appreciated at its true value after it is lost, but too often not before. Live properly, and correct ailments before they become seated. For diseases of the liver, kidneys, skin, stomach, and all arising from impure or feeble blood, DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS are a sure and speedy remedy. It has never yet failed in a single instance.

WE have two articles of our own invention and patent that is needed in every household; sells well; sells—both paying large profits—for which we want to add territory. We have all the territory we want in the United States to sell—or exchange for good real estate, except the States of Michigan, Illinois, Ohio, Indiana, Alabama and those counties in the South-West.

One of our inventions and patents is a Peach Stoner and Halver. With this machine, one hand can do the work of six or eight hands, and at the same time increase the value of the fruit 5 to 10 per cent; when dried, as it cuts the peach so evenly halves and there-by prevents worms from getting in the dried fruit.

Every one of our machines will sell, and in every county of a good size can from five to thirty families pay for one of them.

Having a control, pleasure and being fond of farming, I would exchange the right to sell or both articles for a specified amount of territory for a good plantation, with or without stock and provisions, in South Georgia or Middle Florida.

JURUBEBA

BLOOD PURIFIER

It is not a physic which may give temporary relief to the sufferer for the first few days, but which, from continued use brings Piles and kindred diseases to aid in weakening the liveslit, nor is it a doctored liquor, which, under the popular name of "Bitters" is so extensively palmed off on the public as sovereign remedies, but it is a most powerful Tonic and Alterative, pronounced so by the leading medical authorities of London and Paris, and has been long used by the regular physicians of other countries with wonderful remedial results.

DR. WELLS' EXTRACT OF JURUBEBA

retains all the medical virtues peculiar to the plan and must be taken as a permanent curative agent.

If you have pains or aches in your Liver and Spleen! Unless relieved at once, the blood becomes impure by deleterious secretions, producing scrofulous or skin diseases, Blotches, Pimples, Tetter, Canker, Pimples, etc., etc.

Take JURUBEBA to cleanse, purify and restore the vitiated blood to healthy action.

If you have a Dyspeptic Stomach! Unless digestion is promptly aided the system is debilitated with loss of vital force, poverty of the blood, dropsical tendency, general weakness or inanition.

Take it to assist Digestion without reaction, it will impart youthful vigor to the weary sufferer.

Have you a weakness of the Intestines? You are in danger of Chronic Diarrhœa or the dreadful Inflammation of the Bowels.

Take it to allay irritation and ward off tendency to inflammations.

Have you weakness of the Uterine or Urinary Organs? You must procure instant relief or you are liable to suffering worse than death.

Take it to strengthen organic weakness or life becomes a burden.

Finally it should be frequently taken to keep the system in perfect health or you are otherwise in great danger of material, miasmatic or contagious diseases.
